Seller Rules – ALL SALES

Participation:

- Attire: Wear your NAME TAG and a GCA logo apron over your clothing.
- Artists will engage with and assist customers and may assist with wrapping sold items.
- Artists must commit to being actively involved and available for the entire time period.
- Arrive 1 hour prior to start of the event to assist with setup.
- Stay 1 hour past designated end of event to assist with tear down. EVERYTHING must be stored back in the studio.

Display:

- Artwork must have the white sale tags provided in the studio. Tags will have the name of piece and price on one side and artist's name on other side of tag.
- Affix tags with masking or duct tape, NOT scotch tape.
- Additional pieces may be added when spacing allows due to sales.
- Gallery items with brown tags may be moved to assigned table area as space allows.

Seller Rules – Markets at Grand

- The number of participants is dependent upon space, typically 12-20 in peak season and 4-8 in summer months.
- If a member sold in the previous month, they may request to sell but will only be confirmed if capacity is not met.
- Email confirmation will be sent to all requesting members.
- Confirmed members are not to arrange for a substitute for their confirmed slot. Contact the event manager listed on the previous page.
- Market sale participants will typically have half of a table to display items.
- Assignments will be at the tables in the Village Center on the grassy area outside our studio rear door.

Seller Rules – Fall and Spring Faires

- Members may submit up to 10 pieces.
- Artwork must be brought to the studio by 10:00 a.m. on the day prior to the event. Items are to be unboxed and placed on designated tables. All boxes are to be removed from the studio. Storage in your vehicle is recommended.
- Artwork in the studio Gallery is included in the event, separate from 10 items submitted for the event.
- Artists will not have designated table assignments for Spring and Fall events. The display will be determined by GCA instructors.
